

The CCLI Copyright License

THE LEGAL PERMISSION YOU NEED FOR COPY ACTIVITIES THAT ASSIST CONGREGATIONAL SINGING.

The CCLI Copyright License provides legal coverage for all the typical copying activities that assist congregational singing, including:

Printing Songs

Print songs, hymns and lyrics in bulletins, programs, liturgies and song sheets for congregational singing

Projection or Display

Make copies, digital or physical, of copyright-protected lyrics for projection or display during congregational singing

Storing Lyrics

Enter and store song lyrics on any computer for visual projection to assist with congregational singing

Making Custom Arrangements

Arrange, print and copy your own vocal and instrumental arrangements for congregational singing where a published version is not available

Recording Services

Record and capture your worship services (audio and video), provided you only are recording live music

Translating Songs

Translate song lyrics into any other language for congregational singing where a published version is not accessible or available

We cover over 160,000 North American churches, over 500,000 worship songs and over 3,000 song owners and church music publishers, representing the top worship songs currently sung in churches across the country.

Why You Need It

It's the best way to protect your ministry from being fined for illegal use of copying songs and lyrics. The Federal Copyright Act of 1976 stipulates that violations can result in substantial fines, up to $150,000 per infringement.

The Benefit To You

It's affordable and convenient. Without the blanket coverage that the CCLI Copyright License provides, you would need to seek legal permission from every song owner of every song you copy, every time you copy it—a practical impossibility on your own. The annual fee is based on church size.

What It Does For You

You have the peace of mind that comes with knowing that your music copying activities are legally covered. And since the majority of your license fee is paid to the song owners in the form of royalties, you are blessing the songwriters who have blessed your church and ministries with great worship songs.
